- Personal Statement

I am a Senior lecturer in the department of community health Obafemi Awolowo University, health education and health promotion unit. I have worked closely with the Adolescent Youth friendly Health Centre OAU Ile-Ife in promoting health and ensuring voluntary counseling and testing for HIV/AIDS among University undergraduates. My core research interests have been in the areas of adolescent especially girls and women in schools, hospitals and community as a whole. I have served as the Well Woman clinic coordinator at Urban Comprehensive Health Centre Eleyele during my residency training, a clinic which provide screening examination for women and promote their overall health. I still offer my services to the clinic as a community health physician till date. I am also involved in organizing community outreaches to churches, schools and market, health educating women and offering screening services to promote health as the need arises. I am an advocate of gender equality and I promote women and girls health through creating awareness on health problems and prompt interventions
